TAPESCRIPTS

Question 1:

Caller 1: Hi, I'm Lan. I'm from Ha Noi. I am a bit frustrated. I am in grade 9 and I have one more semester before I finish my junior secondary school. I know it's time to work hard but I can't catch up with all the deadlines for loads of assignments. I don't think I'm going to enter a gifted school. For what reason do I have to work that hard? I have no time for myself!

Caller 2: Hi, I'm Nam. I'm from Ho Chi Minh City. I feel a bit depressed. I like a girl in my school. However, she likes my friend. It wouldn't be that bad if she didn't make fun of me yesterday. How should I deal with her and others?

Question 2:

A: What are you going to do this weekend? Do you like to go to Chuông Village with us?

B: Chuông Village? What is it?

A: It's a craft village famous for making conical hats.

B: Sound interesting! Where is it?

A: It's in Phương Trung Commune, Thanh Oai District.

B: How far is it from the centre of Ha Noi?

A: About 30 kilometres. It's next to the Đáy River.

B: It's not very far. What can we do there?

A: Ngoc's grandparents live there. They are great artisans. They can teach us how to make conical hats. Ngoc can also show us around the village.

B: So when and where will we meet?

A: I'll see you at the school gate at 7 a.m. this Sunday. Then Ngoc's father will drive us to the village in his car.

B: Should I bring anything?

A: Some drinks and fruits will be nice.

B: OK. See you then. Thanks for inviting me.
